

三 3

These animals live in China:

white river dolphin

Amur tiger (also known as the Siberian tiger)

Bactrian camel

Do you know which habitats these animals live in?

二 2

1. Look closely at map 1 and find where giant pandas live today.

2. Look closely at map 2 which shows where giant pandas used to live.

3. What do you think has been the main threat to giant pandas?

- A. pollution
- B. habitat loss
- C. overhunting

一 1

Find the following habitats on map 1:

desert

mountains

grassland

mixed forest

rainforest

rivers—Yangtze and Yellow

giant panda

六 6

Distribution – Sichuan, Gansu & Shaanxi

Diet – 99% bamboo but they will eat fruits and small animals

Length – 150-180cm; Tail length – 12-15cm

Weight – 85-125kg

red panda

六 6

Distribution – central & south west China

Diet – small vertebrates, eggs, berries, seeds and bamboo

Length – 51-73cm, Tail length – 37-48cm

Weight – 2.5-5kg

五 5

The red panda is also from China.

Look at card number 6 which has some facts about the giant panda and the red panda.

Do you think the red panda is related to the giant panda?

四 4

大熊猫 means giant panda

(big bear cat)

小熊猫 means red panda

(small bear cat)

Work out what these characters mean:

大 and 小