

die Farben

All answers to be in German.

The first person to pick this card says the first colour in the rainbow spectrum – red.

The second person to pick this card must say the next colour in the rainbow spectrum.

Each person following continues to say the next colour in order.

If all seven colours of the rainbow have been answered, try to name some different colours.

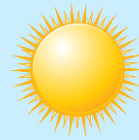

das Wetter

All answers to be in German.

The first person to pick this card says the phrase to describe the weather today.

The second person to pick this card must say another type of weather.

Each person following continues to say a different type of weather.

It is sunny.

It is cloudy.

It is raining.

It is snowing.

There is thunder and lightning.

If all five types of weather pictured have been answered, try to name some temperature words e.g. hot, cold or the seasons.

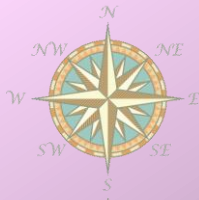

die Richtungen

All answers to be in German.

The first person to pick this card says one of the compass points.

The second person to pick this card must say the next compass point in clockwise order.

Each person following continues to say the next compass point in clockwise order.

If all eight compass points have been answered, try to name some different direction words. For example: up down, across etc.

die Körperteile

All answers to be in German.

The first person to pick this card says a part of the body.

The second person to pick this card must say another part of the body.

Each person following continues to say a different part of the body.

Include German words for parts of a bird. For example: beak, feathers etc.

