

See no evil -

You have to describe the word without looking at your classmates who are trying to guess. Turn yourself so that your back is facing them. You must only speak, no writing or drawing. You must not say the word on the card or any part of the word.

Hear no evil -

You have to describe the word by speaking, gesturing, writing or drawing but your classmates who are trying to guess must not say their answers as you cannot hear! They must give their answers by drawing or writing. You must not say or write the word on the card or any part of the word.

Speak no evil -

You have to describe the word without speaking to your classmates. You can gesture, write or draw. You must not write or draw the actual word or any part of the word.