

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

¡Asombroso
Armadillo!

The giant armadillo's third front claw is about 20cm long!

How do you say 'twenty centimetres' in Spanish?

Answer: veinte centímetros

The giant armadillo can be found in the rainforest.

How do you say 'the rainforest' in Spanish?

Answer: la selva

The giant armadillo can be found in the grasslands.

How do you say 'the grasslands' in Spanish?

Answer: los pastizales

The giant armadillo can be found in the Pantanal. The Pantanal is the world's largest freshwater wetland.

How do you say 'the wetlands' in Spanish?

Answer: los humedales

One of the threats to the giant armadillo is habitat loss.

How do you say 'the habitat loss' in Spanish?

Answer: la pérdida de hábitat

One of the threats to the giant armadillo is climate change.

How do you say 'the climate change' in Spanish?

Answer: el cambio climático

The giant armadillo is found in South America.

How do you say 'South America' in Spanish?

Answer: Sudamérica

The giant armadillo loves to eat ants.

How do you say 'the ant' in Spanish?

Answer: la hormiga