

In January
the squirrels
mate.

In February
the squirrels
build their
dreys.

In March baby
squirrels are born.

In April the squirrels
moult.

In May the
baby squirrels
leave home.
Squirrels may
mate again.

In June
squirrels eat
lots of flowers
and buds.

In July more
baby squirrels
are born.

In August the
squirrels start
to store lots of
food - berries,
cones and
nuts.

In September
the July babies
leave home.

In October
the squirrels
get ready
for winter.

In November
the squirrels
may find
some fungi
to eat.

In December
the squirrels
find their stores of food to eat.