

True or False:

Sloths spend most of their time on the ground.

Answer: False

What is a giant anteater's tongue like?

- A. spotty
- B. colourful
- C. sticky

Answer: C - sticky

True or False:

Giant anteaters don't have a good sense of smell.

Answer: False

True or False:

About 12,000 years ago there was a giant sloth measuring 3.5m tall.

Answer: True

Where do armadillos live?

- A. Central and South America
- B. Asia
- C. Europe

Answer: A - Central and South America

How many ants can a giant anteater eat in one day?

- A. 300
- B. 3000
- C. 30,000

Answer: C - 30,000

True or False:

Giant anteaters have no teeth.

Answer: True

There are 21 species of armadillos. Some are different colours. Which colour is not a colour of armadillo?

- A. yellow
- B. pink
- C. white

Answer: C - white

True or False:

Giant armadillos have no teeth.

Answer: False

True or False:

Sloths cannot swim.

Answer: False

True or False:

Sloth organs are designed to work upside down.

Answer: True – the organs are not actually upside down but they have a special attachment to their ribs to stop them pressing on their lungs.

True or False:

Giant armadillos have a claw about 20cm long on their hands.

Answer: True