Hi mate

I am writing to you coz I'm interested in the RZSS Ambassador position. I would like to work for you as the job sounds really cool and I like animals. I have 2 dogs and a cat as pets and take them for walks. I currently work in a chip shop for 3 or 4 day a week. I have been in this working here for 3 years. I have decided that I want a new job and I fancy working in a zoo. I am confident that I can do the job as in the Discovery and Learning team at the Highland Wildlife Park.

In my last job at as head fryer, I am the main point of contact for deliveries and stocktaking as well as dealing with the customers and handling the money. I would like to work in a zoo as I really like David Attenborough and like to watch him on the TV.

Working at the Golden Fryer has improved my skills in speaking to the public and people management as I lead a team of 3 people and often, I am left in charge to run the shift and lock up, mainly coz my boss to very lazy and does not like doing the late shift. I believe my team player skills fit well with the requirements for the HWP Discovery Ambassador role. For example, in my current position I had to be able to deal with drunk people when they came out of the pub which involved me serving them quickly as possible and sending them on their merry way without them kicking off and being a pain to the other customers. I now hate working in the chip shop and want a new job in the Highlands.

I don't know how to attach a document, but I will send it in the post, which highlights my qualifications and experience in greater details. I look forward to the possibility of catching to discuss this exciting opportunity with you. I am available for an interview as soon as possible.

Speak soon,

Fred Flintstone 😊
